

SUBMISSION & ELIGIBILITY REQUIREMENTS

Movies for this human world 2010 must deal with human rights issues.

Movies can be submitted (irrespective of length of the movie, nationality and genre) but they must have been completed after 01.01.2009 and not been shown during a previous this human world festival.

2010 it is planned to have an audience competition for long films (documentary or feature film). Every festival film which has been completed after 01.01.2009 is going to be part of this competition.

There is no submission fee.

Screener must be sent as DVDs (or VHS) only (see address on the end of this page). Festival films may have the following formats: 35mm, 16mm, Betacam-SP, DVD, Mini-DV

A non-returnable final cut copy of the film must be on DVD; it will remain the archive of this human world. If it is yet needed back, the postage will have to be paid by the receiver.

Together with the screener we will need the following information via e-mail (office@thishumanworld.com) or on CD via ordinary mail:

- Original title, country of production, year of production, original language, subtitles
- Cast & credits (producer, director, screenplay, cut, sound)
- Original format, running time, format in which the film is going to be shown
- Premiere, showing dates of the production in international cinemas and on TV until 12.10.2010, in Austria until 12.12.2010
- Sales /film distributor international or – if existing – in Austria
- Two film stills (minimum)
- A short biography of the filmmaker(s)

Movies must be sub-titled in German or English, when original language is not German or English

There will be no submission form to fill out for the festival 2010

After it is decided to include the film, suitable promotion material (press and media material, posters, picture material in printing quality etc.) must be sent until 1. October 2010.

The decision of the selection committee is final. Topicality, year of publication, which country the movie takes place in/ where it has been shot, already received film festival prizes will be considered.

For officially chosen films, the holder of rights agrees that up to 3 minutes of the film respectively all commercial material will be used for this human world purposes in all media.
